Introduction

The 1966 Cat's Tale staff would like to take advantage of this opportunity to extend our thanks to several persons:

To "Put" for his time and sponsorship,
To Mrs. Kidd for her patience,
To Mr. Schiebout for his reassuring manner,
And to the entire faculty for their co-operation.

When work was begun on this publication, the staff decided not to dedicate it to any individual person. Instead, we chose to publish this annual in the interests of the Senior class of 1966 hoping that they will cherish it as a record of one of the most memorable years of their lives.

Foreign Exchange Student

The vacancy left at Morganton High School by the departure of Agneta and Martin was filled this year by Brigitte Frey, a young lady with a lovely personality, from Zurich, Switzerland. Brigitte arrived in August, 1965, somewhat bewildered; nevertheless, enthusiastic about her coming year in Morganton with the Phil Pitts family.

Her first month here was spent in getting to know her new family and becoming familiar with the town of Morganton. The students of M.H.S. soon learned that their new exchange student had a variety of interests. For, Brigitte enjoys all sports, especially tennis, swimming, skiing, and hiking. In her spare time, she does copper enameling and collects stamps and butterflies.

The excellence of her academic background can be seen in her choice of studies. This year her courses include physics, chemistry, English IV, Accelerated Math IV, and U. S. History. After her travels here, Brigitte will return to Zurich where she plans to further her education as a biology major.

Only one of her numerous public addresses.

Brigitte in her native costume with her American sister Rebecca Pitts.

Exercising an extensive mathematical ability.

Susan Ervin

As our high school days draw to a close, our thoughts wander back over the past years . . . We are freshmen in the fall of 1963, enthusiastically, but with trepidation, starting our experiences as big high schoolers . . . Rushing down the middle stairs, we dash into our classroom just as the bell rings, only to find that some "helpful" upperclassman has given us the wrong directions . . . If only we could get our hands on the guy who wrote, "Mica, Mica, Parvae Stellae" . . . Our newly acquired sophistication is shaken by the Mexican Hat Dance and our dormant muscles by push-ups . . . Our thoughts surge on to our sophomore year . . . We are a little more sure of ourselves; now we really "belong" . . . What fun to slice up those foot long worms . . . After English and Latin we feel we know Caesar better than ourselves . . . Initiations disconcert and delight us . . . In a flash, we are juniors, upperclassmen . . . Explosions and gas laws keep us awake in chemistry—most of the time . . . We complete our first term paper without having a mental collapse . . . We complete Jr.-Sr. preparations without collapsing the gym . . . After as much slinging of paint on the walls as on ourselves, we welcome the seniors to "Gai Paree" . . . David Newton, Lynne Potts, Richard Brodeur, Frieda Farfour, Terry Messmer, Susan Ervin, Roy Curlee, Carolyn Sakowski, Johnny Johnson, and Clara Jean Michaels are filled with pride when they learn that they are marshals . . . Finally, we are seniors, the school leaders . . . Our hands become suddenly conspicuous the day the rings arrive . . . The "terrible two" brings pangs of regret for lessons not studied . . . "Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow . . ."—Will we never finish Macbeth? . . . Our heart beats speed up as we reach for our college board scores or open a letter from a college . . . Every event holds special meaning because we know that it is "for the last time".

It does not seem possible that we are seniors. And yet, we realize that we have matured educationally, socially, and individually; and we are ready to go forward in life, although this commencement means parting from our friends, teachers, and Alma Mater.

Will and Testament

We, the infamous class of 1966, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath our goals and achievements, our tears and laughter, our joys and sorrows, and our fond or otherwise memories of four unforgettable years at M.H.S. to our posterity.

To the Town of Morganton, we leave highways and byways that are quieter and safer as the results of our departure.

To our faithful teachers and parents we give our most sincere appreciation for the guidance and devotion they have shown us during our stay at M.H.S.

To the halls of M.H.S. we leave much deserved tranquility. May they rest in peace.

We, Ronnie Causby and Eddie Garrison, leave our love for the out-of-doors to Glenn Causby and Johnny Whisenant.

We, Brenda Butler and Greta Tate, leave our ability to always be "where the action is" to Kaye Tolbert and Nancy Smith.

I, Clark Craver, leave my super-natural powers to David Propst.

I, Donald Sisk, leave my fan club in the hands of Mike Abee, who already has a harem of his own.

We, Elaine Abernathy, Judy Clark, and Anita Angley, leave M.H.S. for married life.

I, Richard Brodeur, leave my advanced intellectual mind to Mike McCall, who hardly needs it.

We, Lynn and Walter Burnette, leave our quiet ways to Joe Whisenant, James Wright, and William Greer.

We, Charles Monroe and Larry Ross, leave our manly good looks to Buzzy Poteat and Ben Powell.

I, Terry Messmer, leave my little boyish appearance but big man ideas to Richard Liebhart.

We, Kathy Rogers and JoAnne Tubergen leave our friendly personalities to Anne Crutchfield and Pat Parnell.

We, Doris Arney, Susan Brothers, and Sheila Mann, leave our flushed ways to Fran Abernathy and Charlie Mae Earley.

I, Diana Whisenant, leave for Chapel Hill and the MEN.

We, Ronnie Puett and Andy Tuttle, leave our talent of never getting caught to Keith Blevins.

We, Pam Greene and Fons Giles, leave—TOGETHER.

We, Linda Stine, Helen Martin, and Kathy Kendrick, leave our quiet reserved ways to Marie Zimmerman and Edith Tallent.

We, Threna McNeely, Jeanette Sperati, and Sandra Mallonee, leave poised appearances to Carla Walker and Janice Brittain.

I, Marina Houpe, leave my love of math to Becky Sink and Melvina Sain.

I, Carla Giles, leave my love of Valdese girls to Susan Wacaster. Keep Fighting!

We, Beth McCombs, Gail Turner, and Melba Newton, leave our neat appearance to Nancy Prince and Kay Tasler.

I, Johnny Johnson, leave my place at the Boxwood to any junior who is stupid enough to park his car on a post.

I, Mike Leonard, leave my reserved seat in the office to Donnie Lambeth, who already has one of his own.

I, Billy Kirksey, leave my friendly, good-natured ways to Andy Newton.

We, Tommy Freeman and Steve Rudicil, leave our love of music and a good time to Charlie Brown and Gene Duckworth.

I, Freddie Setzer, leave my title of B.M.O.C. to Charles Conley.

We, Donna Monroe, Jimmie Lea Moore, and Peggy Bingham, leave our efficient ways to Anne Vernon and Margaret Snyder.

We, Mark Sanderford, Drew Walker, and Jeff Furst, will our individuality to Charles Hogshead.

We, Vivian Fox and Betty Barrier, leave our love of nursing to Sandra Morgan and Paula Roach.

I, Larry Ballew, leave my hearty laugh and love of a good joke to Billy Coley.

I, Anne Byrd, leave my endless chasing of boys to Hilda Greene.

I, Jimmy Keller, leave my warm-hearted attitude to Eddie McGimsey and Doug Lay.

I, Carolyn Sakowski, leave the leadership of the Anchor Club in the capable hands of Jane Avery.

We, Catherine Bannon, Elizabeth Gregory, and Martha Phifer, leave our ever present smiles to Myra Griggs, Diane Mills, and Jean Anderson.

We, Mike McDaniel and Johnny Wright, leave our frequent visits to the Rec to Rex Williams and Jerry Ledford.

We, Karen Ball and Clara Jean Michaels, leave our talkative ways to Linda Ball.

I, Susan Ervin, leave my ability to always have a boy on the string to Glenda Clark.

I, Steve Baker, leave my practical jokes to Johnny Newton and James Hisie.

I, Lynne Potts, leave my masterful abilities to Beverly Leonhardt and Carolyn Kirby.

I, Jodie Carpenter, leave my friendly ways to Nancy Graybeal.

I, Sid Bryson, leave my ready wit and pleasing personality to Earl Robinson.

We, Brenda Simmons, Donna Johnson, and Linda Propst, leave our easy going ways to Lourita Tessener, Louise Lane, and Carolyn Hensley.

I, Pat Souther, leave, as I have no reason to stay.

I, Elaine Hudson, leave my strut on the gridiron to Nolita Fisher and Jackie Hensley.

I, Vernon Fleming, leave a seat in Put's room, well worn by eight o'clock classes to "Booker" Pearson.

We, Diane Ervin and Loretta Thomas, leave our choral ability to Evanna Nusz.

I, John Parks, leave my supply of bubble gum to David Hawkins, Jackie Barrier, and Jack McNeely.

I, Gary Wright, leave to Jimmy Steele and Randy Williams, the piloting of my little orange bus, which after next year should go to the junk pile.

I, Gay Hoffmeyer, leave my innumerable collection of records to Jane Abernathy and Susan McNeely.

I, James Leonhardt, leave my ability to always be late for home-room to Tommy Rippy.

I, Gus Harbison, leave weight-lifting and muscles to David Price.

I, Betty Ann Bowen, leave my attraction for older men to Linda Meyers and Diana Panarese.

I, Charlene Forney, will my ability to laugh at nothing to Gladys Morris.

I, Guy Hollifield, leave my ability to annoy any teacher to Robert Scott, Al Fleming, Paul Thomas, and Donald Smith.

I, Mike DiBiase, leave my irresistible ways to Jimmy Mitchell.

I, Ted Pittman, leave my neat appearance and out-going personality to Rod Gantt and Phil Whitaker.

I, Kay Newton, leave my model ways to Ruthie Connelly.

We, Connie Williams, Anne Irvin, and Barbara Bettis, will our ability to let people know we're around to Lee Ann Sigmon and Florence Avery.

I, Donald Stamps, think I'd better stay because I have nothing which I can afford to give away.

I, Mary Phifer, leave my ability to get along with everyone to Brynda Crisp.

We, Keith Galloway and John Sigmon, leave our ability to charm the women to any junior who can use it as sparingly as we can.

We, Tony Loftis, Richard Brown, and Ronnie Mills, leave all our left-over blue slips to Robert Bryant, Kenneth Carter, and Darryl Klutz.

I, Nancy Steele, leave my extensive wardrobe to Christie Carroway and Judy Simmons.

We, Becky Dockery and Sandra Bourgoine, bequeath our luck of always getting caught to Miriam Leslie and Barbara Dale.

I, Johnny Crowder, will my exceptional talent on the dance floor to Larry Wherstine.

I, Joe Cooper, leave my memories of court to any other drag strip fan.

We, Mary Anna Williams and Beverly Hicks leave our soft voices to Jo Ann Shelton, Judy Grady, and Mattie Chambers.

We, Susan Ward and Mimi Kirby, will our ability to have a swell summer to Mary Perry.

I, Kate Avery, leave my bubbling personality and my willingness to help others to any junior who can carry on my vibrant ways.

We, Steve Corpening and Jodie Ervin, leave our exuberant voices to John O'Neil.

I, Larry "Fats" Bryant, leave my height to Joe Avery and John Sellers.

We, Ervin Dale and Dennis Donahue, leave our copy of Donabue and Dales' Revised American History to Jimmy Hawkins, Ronald Haynes, and Philip Baker.

We, Artie McKesson and Sylvia Jolley, will our ability to keep all the boys guessing to Henrietta Largent and Rosetta Kincaid.

We, Howard Lane and Gary Ledford, leave our motto "Silence is Golden" to Marty Harris, William Johnson, and William Harbison.

I, Bill "Moose" Moore, leave my manliness and love for the girls to Austin Smith, Jerry Allman, and Jerry Whisenant.

I, Roy Curlee, leave my reserved place on the honor roll to Mike Propst.

I, Brigit Frey, leave all the memories of Morganton, American life, and the wonderful friends I've met in hopes that I'll someday return.

We, Kaye Carrswell and Grace Clark, leave our places in "Put's Poor Health Club" to Linda Pearson, Jesse Allen Willets, and Steve "Mud Hole" McCall.

We, Judy Abee, Jeanne Clarke, and Lizzie Max, leave our sweet dispositions to Rhonda Braswell, Sandra McCracken, and Susie Hewat.

We, Margaret Harbison and Faye Waldrop, bequeath our "giggles" to Joette Ricks, Alma "Fudd" Johnson, and Donnie Morrissey.

I, James Hunt, regretfully leave Nancy Tate.

We, Jackie Thomas, Thomas Tapp, and Clyde Ramsey, will be content just to leave!

We, Harold McKinney and Kay Woodie, leave our fond memories of band trips to Dean Wilson and Bo Cash.

I, David Newton, leave my neat appearance and my ability to always have something to say to everyone to L. H. Kirksey.

I, Ted Blanton, leave my collection of car magazines to Harry Houpe and Dickie Turner.

We, Linda Smith, Brenda Coffey, and Geraldine Gibson, leave our ability to know a lot without saying much to Susan Williams and Margaret Leonard.

I, Alan Robinson, leave my smallness to Bruce Webb and Billy Willets.

We, John Chapman and Ted Canipe, leave in quest of greater adventure.

I, Toney Stamey, leave the delivery of the News-Herald to Larry Pritchard.

I, William Chambers, leave my industrious ways to Keith Miller.

We, James and Mildred Largent, leave to Tommy the job of carrying out the Largent tradition next year at M.H.S.

I, Allen Shook, leave all the homework which I never did to Philip Robinson, Victor Smith, and Gerald Hicks.

I, Butch Woody, leave my talent as an artist to Philip Morris.

We, Frank Braswell, Ted Summers, and Steve Mull leave—FINALLY.

We, the Senior Class of 1966, do hereby leave $1.50 to Tommy Parker in hopes that he will spend it at the barber shop.

I, Sammy Williams, leave my memories of the law to Tommy Grady.

I, Gary Whisnant, leave my used parking space to Randy Curtis and his "Old Red Car".

I, Jane Benfield, leave my devotion to the church to Sue Byrd.

We, Harold Chapman, Robert Bandy, Vernon Lytle, and John Corpening, leave our polite mannerisms to Paul Allen, Harry Ervin, and Roy Chambers, Jr.

We, Laura Caldwell, Janice Clark, and La Verne Harbison, leave our meaningful ways to Susan Ervin, Wanda Coffey, and Frances Clark.

We, Ruth Johnson, Judy Nusz, Diane Thomas, and Hettie Smith, leave our seats in Mr. Clodfelter's homeroom to Elaine Owens, Belinda Thomas, and Jacqueline Conley in hopes that they will get more studying done than we did.

I, Frieda Farfour, will my title as "EVERYONE'S FAVORITE" to Nancy Riggs.

I, Lynda Williams, leave my thoughts of Ridgecrest to Jimmy Black who has a few of his own.

I, Linda Phillips, leave my superb good taste to Rebecca Pitts.

We, Robert Walton, and John Wilson, bequeath our past feeling of senior superiority to Steve Bradshaw, Dewey Bumgarner, Robert Baker, and Phillip Herman.

We, Jimmie Davis and Ralph Hawkins, will our intense dislike of exams and "pop" tests to Bobby Hoyle, George Tuttle, Mike Stephenson, and Calvin Sossoman.

I, Mayola Decker, leave my ability to make good grades and keep house, too, to some lucky junior.

We, the Senior Class of Morganton do hereby set our seal to be affixed on this the thirty-first day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred sixty-six.

Poem

As the dawn approaches
We realize that we must Decide what our world
Is to become.
We realize that now
As the darkness gathers
We realize that now
We must light our own fire.
Eventually we will enter a world of dreams
Dreams of our future,
Our positions,
Our gifts to the world,
Our failures,
And most of all—our successes.
The dawn is approaching
But, are we ready?
Only time will tell
For now, it is tomorrow.

Prophecy

" . . . just drop it in the mail; you don't even have to be present to win. Your number may. The Captain Galloway Show! We'll be back to meet the old goof, after a word from our sponsor, The Lynda & Steve Bakeries, Inc."

"Friends, buy the best bread. Buy Baker's bread. It tears right down the middle. Remember, 'if it's fresher than Baker, it's in jail!'"

"Oven, you idiot!"

"Hello, boys and girls—William Chambers has refused to negotiate with union leader Harold McKinney over the steel strike which was called earlier this week. The strike threatens to shut down Bryant Motor Company, Wright Motor Company, and other corporations dependent on Chambers Steel. Arbitrator Ervin Dale has been summoned to help find a solution. President DiBiase called for an emergency meeting of Secretary of State, Julius Harrison, Secretary of War, James Leonhardt, and other governmental officials, to decide what to do about the peasant revolt in Drexel, N. C. Senators Walker, Ballew, and Dirksen headed the filibuster to break up forces demanding the repeal of section 14.H of the Taft Hartley law. Senator John Johnson has tried unsuccessfully to have this law repealed since 1990 with no success. More news after a word from our sponsor."

"BUY!"

"Now back to the news. Physicist Roy Curlee got the first Pulitzer Booby Prize ever awarded. It was presented to him for his machine 'which does the work of 100 men.' The only trouble with the machine is that it takes 1000 men to work it. Better luck next year Roy. But you'll never top your cure for the common cold. The Pulitzer Prize for physics went to Terry Messmer for his invention, which was a black light bulb for making light places dark."

"Now for sports. Steve Harbison, Vernon Fleming, James Hunt, and Guy Hollifield ran four abreast to break the world's speed record for the 440 yard dash. We'll spin this platter now. It's a new hit by Tommy Freeman, Stephen Rudicil, James Hise, and Billy Kirksey, with Eddie Garrison on drums and John Henry Sigmon swingin' that cool bari-sax. It's called 'The Gorilla My Dreams,' just out on Garbage records. Boom. Boom. I wanna see yooooou tonight-waaaaa! Boom! Crunch, crunch. Blam during a huge fire that broke out in Byrd's Department Store earlier the audience we have famous dancer Linda Philips, movie star Tony Loftis, Playwright Howard Lane, water ski champion Linda Hoyle, and beauty queen Sheila Mann. After this break, comedian Joe Cooper and singer Richard Brown, along with the famous dancer volunteer firemen Sidney Bryson, Freddie Setzer and Gary Coffin barely escaped the flames while rescuing dress designer Kay Newton, Frieda Farfour and Diana Whisnant. Fire chief David Propst was fighting the fire gallantly with a tank of compressed liquid oxygen. More news in a moment after a word about Mabe's Hair—Grow Oil."

"Yes, this stuff really makes your hair come in heavy," says textile magnate Andy Tuttle. "Only one hair grew, but it weighed 20 pounds."

"The weather for the eastern-starring Bobby Hoyle as MacBeth, Julius Harrison as Banquo, and Fons Giles as MacDuff. Tonight's performance will start with offstage—her latest recipes. And here she is, Lizzie Max!"

"Hello, Ladies. Today we are going to make toad stew. First, you take four plump, juicy, tempting garden toads and cut them in half like gak! Then pull out the innards—yeeeh! Then, gagck, the liver and they're coming down the track! It's Whirlaway all the way! Looks like jockey Alan Robinson has ridden this horse in for its fourth and look at the owners. Ralph Hawkins and John Corpeneing are going to have a blast tonight. Let me take this opportunity to remind you that next weeks sports will be brou . . . HEY! There's a baby on the track! Get that baby off the track!"

"The horses are upon it! It's a goner! I can't look—Wait, there's a man running down the track!" He's got the baby! The horses are upon him! Whew! That was close. Who is that brave soul? A bird? A plane? No, it's Toney Stamey! His red cape has spooked Sea Biscuit.

"We are amazed by the success of Doris Arney Brodeur's latest book, How to Develop Nerves of Steel for Public Speaking. It hasssss sssssold twooo huuuuundred million copies."

"The most exciting news came today from Chatman, Pennsylvania, where three unidentified bandits in gorilla suits robbed the Furst National Bank. Daring Karen Ball hustled bank tellers Betty Bowen, Cathy Bannon, Diane Irvin, and twelve customers out the back door. She then sounded the alarm while the hoods tried to knock out FBI man Tommy Fleming whose head seemed impervious to all blows. Policemen Sammy Williams, Ronny Causby, Walter Burnette, and Lynn Burnette drove up just as the thugs were coming out of the bank door. After a blazing gun battle, the bandits grabbed millionairess Constance Williams as a hostage. And were last seen heading out Clara Jean Michael's Street (Oh brother!) in a red 1992 Ledford. Karen Ball described the bandits as being disguised in gorilla suits which prevented any positive identification. 'It was a very hairy experience,' she said and"

"Well, I guess that's all we need to know Thugsby, they'll never find us here. Nutsy is bringing the truck and we'll divide up the loot and be outta here by nightfall. Keep that radio on anyway. We'll need to know what they find back at the bank."

What's your name little girl?"

"I'm Alvin Donahue, and I wanna say hello to my—and then he ran away with my best friend. But, I still love him. What should I do, Miss Gregory?"

"Well first, I'd try to forget . . . this new hit by Ronnie Puett, Carla Giles, Mike Leonard, Jimmy Keller and other vocalists with . . . after this next Gary DoWright cartoon . . . Ward singing the lead in Dvorak's Saint Ludmila, Oratorio with George Szell and the New, Improved today he is expected to zeerrp—in sports the latest New, Improved . . . New . . . "

"YOUR LUCKY NUMBER MAY HAVE BEEN PICK-ED! YOU MAYbe discovered at their hideout in the A WINNER! NOTHING TO BUY, NOTHING alias 'Nutsy' PRESENT TO WIN your name little girl? what is your name? What is BABY! I LOVE THE WAY YOU WALK, I LOVE THE have been surrounded. The police are now engaged in a blazing gun BLAM! BABY, I CAN'T BLAM! BLAM! BLAM! YOUR LUCKY into the scene and that which should accompany THE GORILLA MY DREAMS BLAM! More weather in a moment a moment a moment NEW IMPROVED! FRED ASTAIRE IS ALMOST NINETY AND he can still dance out brief still dance. I love the way you—can still dance, Isn't that remarkable. Isn't that amazing. Isn't that . . . "

"We're Number One" was the cry heard from most Morganton fans after the games this season. However, the Wildcats failed to be the top team in the Northwestern Conference. The 'Cats, led by captain Mike DiBiase and co-captain Fred Setzer, wound up the season tied for second place, carrying a 7-3 record.

Before the season got underway, reports had it that we would win only two or three games. The Wildcats sported a strong backfield, but had a small inexperienced line. However, the outstanding spirit of the 1965 'Cats kept the team going when the going was really rough.

The 'Cats parlayed a savage defense and the running of halfbacks, Tom Fleming and Fred Setzer, to shut out the Watauga Pioneers 21-0 in the season opener. The defensive team intercepted five passes, scored a safety, and held the Pioneers to -3 yards rushing. T. Fleming scored two touchdowns and Sid Bryson scored once while F. Setzer had one called back.

A ball-hawking defense stopped Wilkes Central in one of the best games of the year. F. Setzer scored twice, one was a spectacular 80-yard kick-off return. T. Fleming kicked the extra point, which proved to be the winning point of the game. Wilkes had scored twice but missed both extra points. Wilkes had the ball deep in Wildcat territory in the waning seconds of the game, but a stout 'Cat defense preserved the victory.

The next week, the 'Cats tackled Lenoir 31-20. The Wildcats went wild in the first period, scoring three times. Lenoir threatened late in the game, but an interception by William Hunt saved the 'Cats.

Powerful East Mecklenburg handed the 'Cats their first defeat in a non-conference tilt. The Wildcats, hampered by injuries and penalties, had difficulty stopping the hard running East halfbacks in the first half, but played a good second half. The game ended after S. Bryson passed to T. Fleming to make the score 29-13.

The 'Cats got back in the winning column by rolling over Newton-Conover 41-14. The homecoming crowd saw a wide open offense and a good, hard-hitting defense. Six Morganton players scored in the game. T. Fleming scored twice, S. Bryson threw a touchdown pass to Steve Harbison and another to Ben Powell, Mike Abee plunged over from the 3, and Jim Keller recovered a blocked punt and raced into the end zone.

Summary

A fired-up Valdese team put the 'Cats in a three-way for first place by defeating us 21-12. S. Bryson passed to T. Fleming and ran for another touchdown as the 'Cats held a 12-7 halftime lead. However, the Tigers roared for two touchdowns and a 21-12 victory in the second half.

The fired-up Wildcats rolled over Hudson 20-7 to stay in contention for the title. S. Bryson threw a 56-yard TD pass to B. Powell to give the 'Cats a 7-0 halftime lead. In the second half, F. Setzer and M. Abee both ground out tough touchdowns. The defensive team limited Hudson to only one touchdown.

The 'Cats took over first place with a 13-0 victory over Marion. The two teams battled to a 0-0 halftime score. In the second half, Morganton broke the scoreless deadlock. David Newton blocked a punt and Jodie Ervin picked it up and ran for the touchdown. The 'Cats scored again when T. Fleming plunged over from the one yard line. Marion had a third quarter TD called back. Fleming ended a Marion threat late in the game by stealing the ball from a Marion end.

The 'Cats threw the title away by letting the Hickory Tornadoes defeat them 35-28. The 'Cat defense which had been outstanding most of the year, let Hickory score four times. Chuck Fleming ran the opening kick-off back to give the 'Cats a quick 7-0 lead. But, Hickory snapped back for two touchdowns. S. Bryson passed to T. Fleming to make the score 14-13 at halftime. But Hickory outscored the 'Cats in the second half 3 to 2 to win the game.

The 'Cats wound up the season by rolling over Taylorsville 28-0. A drenched field did not seem to affect the running of backs F. Setzer, T. Fleming, and M. Abee. The defense held Taylorsville in check the whole game.

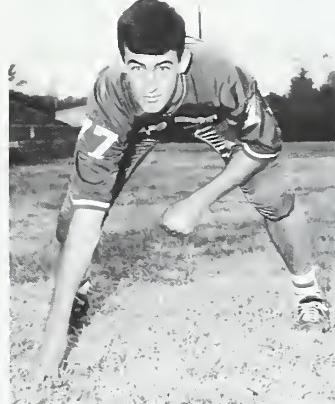

Four players on the Morganton squad were rewarded for their fine efforts. M. DiBiase, F. Setzer, T. Fleming, and S. Bryson were named to the Lions' Bowl team. The hard running T. Fleming was also an all-conference back.

The Seniors of the '65 Wildcats would like to wish next year's team all the luck in the world. If they have the spirit we had this year, they will go all the way.

Annual Staff

It's over! (Sigh) . . . at least for another year. And the product of the past year's labors is in your hands.

It all began during the summer of 1965. There were friendly little gatherings of the editorial staff, while the business staff was hurriedly toddling 'round town selling ads. At the beginning of the school year, things moved rather slowly. Then with the completion of the "dummy" layouts, everything began rolling.

The first meaningful milestone was the writing of individual senior copy. Then we completed the faculty and class copy. At that point we were feeling pretty confident, but there was still a lot of work to do. Pictures had to be taken, final layouts had to be drawn, and everything must be labeled for correct placement in the annual. The cover proof and the annual proofs had to be returned and proofread. Then came the waiting period. The next time the staff saw the annual was on this day of days, when it is shared with you—the students.

Band

During the summer of 1965, the Morganton High School band completed their activities for that year with a trip to New York City. There they enjoyed the sights of the city and performed at the World's Fair. Later, the veteran band members and the new recruits began the school year by retaining their tradition of recognition. For, at Bristol, both the band and the majorettes received very high honors. Morgantonians were able to appreciate the band's abilities as they presented precision drills during the football season, marched in the Christmas parade and gave concerts to the community.

Drum major Stephen Rudicil.

Secretary Mark Sanderford, President Stephen Rudicil, Vice President D. Walker; Director Raymond Babelay.

Homecoming Queen

On October 8, 1965, during the half-time activities, eighteen dauntless young ladies and their umbrella-bearing escorts were blown onto the football field. All the sponsors had been announced; silence pervaded the stadium. The announcer paused. Then—"Miss Frieda Farfour, Miss Homecoming for 1965." The silence was immediately broken by the cheers of the enthusiastic audience. Ted Pittman crowned the gracious queen and presented her with a bouquet of red roses. Then the queen was honored by an appropriate program presented by the Morganton High School band.

Date: May 5, 1965

Place: Morganton High Gym

Setting: "Evening in Paris"

Upon arriving under a veil of misty rain, the seemingly sophisticated upperclassmen were greeted by a sparkling fountain and appropriately attired sophomore servers. The atmosphere was enhanced by wall murals, the music of the "Excels", and the delicious food. Finally, with the stroke of twelve, each departed to go his own way.

A week of preparation.

Sophomore servers.

In "Gai Paree".

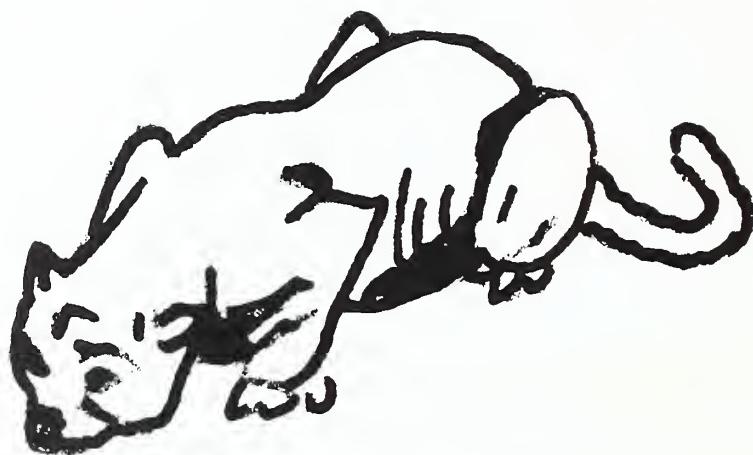

Music supplied by the "Excels".
